Reports

Ordeal (Andrew Smallberger) - We had 95 new members inducted this weekend. Can everyone who completed their ordeal please stand to be recognized. Thank you for all the work you've done, we are very grateful for your help. We completed a lot of service that would have taken a longer time for individual crews to go do. You helped to get things ready for people to use this year. Please come out to Spring Service Two or another weekend this year. We are always taking emats so sign up if you are interested, it will be fun.

Brotherhood (Alex Rossi) - We had 46 Brotherhood candidates seal their bond this week so if you are one of them please stand to be recognized. Great job with the service, we did a lot. I still have 12 Brotherhood papers so if you didn't get yours please come see me.

Inductions (Jaclyn Keyser) - As mentioned we had 95 ordeals inducted, but we would not have been able to do this without our elangomats. If you were an elangomat please stand to be recognized. Thank you guys, we would not have been able to do this without you.

We will be running a trial run of our new extended elangomat program. Thank you to the people who are helping us out with this trial. If you are a newly inducted ordeal please keep an eye out for post weekend emails regarding information on your next steps.

Service (Ian Brumm) - This weekend because of your hard work we have had 1,008 hours of service to camp. All of the service projects we put out were completed so a big round of applause for that. This work means a lot to the camp and ranger.

Ceremonies (Matthew Rouleau) - I would like to start off by thanking everyone who helped to prepare the ceremonial grounds for all of our ceremonies this weekend. We hope we will be up at the top ceremonial grounds for Fall Fellowship.

I'd like to recognize everyone who helped with ceremonies so everyone give a big round of applause.

Lastly, Zach Kline performed his last ceremony last night so everyone give him a huge round of applause.

AIA (Leah Callahan) - We had a great Powwow yesterday, Thank you to all of the ceremonialists who helped out with all of our ceremonies. Thank you to the drum team, everyone give a round of applause to those members.

Events (Leah Callahan) - Im Back! Did everyone have fun this weekend? We had a total of 296 people check in, so a big round of applause to that. I want to give a quick chapter cup update: Minquas is in the lead with 50pts, Lafayette is in Second with 40pts, followed by Washington with 30pts, Triune has 10 pts for having the most books donated to the book drive. Thank you to the drum team and thank you to the kitchen crew. Please sign up for Spring Service Two as Resica Falls on May 16th. Our theme for that weekend is going to be Australia!

Unit Elections (Marina Darcas) - We already have people who have earned the Unit Elections training patch. Please stand up to be recognized. This means these individuals have attended the unit elections training, and have completed at least five unit elections. Congratulations to them!

Conclave (Amelia Levay) - As many of you know during the summer there is an awesome event called Conclave. The t-shirt and fundraiser patches are in the trading post. Please consider buying them. It will help drop the price of the event for the lodge and will help us out. So please buy them.

Business

Extended Elangomat Program (Jaclyn Keyser) - As I introduced earlier, we are introducing the extended emat program to help with conversion rates. Our goal is to limit the amount of "Sash and Dashing" that occurs in the lodge and increase the rate of ordeal to brotherhood. To encourage people to help with this we have a patch design we'd like to push through soon, but today we are only looking at the design. This is not the final design, we still have to make some edits but we just want some feedback. It will be a flap and a dangle and it will not be for sale, you will need to earn it.

The requirements to earn this include: Connect with the ordeals, Reach out to them about upcoming lodge events, and encourage them to do their brotherhood.

Once you get a certain number of people to complete their brotherhood then you get the patch.

Unami Lodge Hat (Star McMackin) - We wanted to redo the black and green Unami Lodge hat. We are not approving anything, just design feedback is all we're looking for. With the design we are showing we will most likely be getting rid of the one underneath the turtle.

See attachment for design

Anything for the good of the Lodge:

In January we held the Annual Lodge Dinner, but we had some members who were not there to receive their award, so we wanted to recognize them here and present them with their awards.

Thomas J Richard (Martin Stacey) - Thomas J Richards excellent service award goes to a youth who has shown excellent service. Thomas J Ricahrds was a lodge chief and section chief of NE5B. He unfortunately passed away in 2010, he is known as the one and only Super Chief. I'd like to call up Ian Brumm.

Ian stands out as a steadfast worker amongst the youth of the lodge. Whether it be service to Lafayette Chapter, or in his current role as the lodge Service Chair, he shows himself to be an organized leader with a keen mind. Probably his greatest attribute is Ian's willingness to help a brother in need, without reservation.

Green Turtle Award (Todge Sutkowski) - The green turtle was created by the LEC in 2016 to recognize corporations or people who aren't in the Order of The Arrow but support the goal of Unami Lodge and the OA. I've been on the Council Camping Committee and we take a lot for granted. To enjoy camping, lots have to happen. We'd like to present this award to the Conservation Chair for Council, Bob Hartman.

Membership (David Zangwill) - If you did not get a new membership packet please come see me after this meeting so I can get one to you. You need the packet because it has a lot of valuable information in it.

Vigil (Zach Kline) - Nominations for the Vigil class are still open, if someone you know is a brotherhood and shows exemplary service to their troop, lodge, or community, please nominate them. It's under the awards section on the website. Nominations are due by the end of April. May 3rd will be the selection meeting. Chapter Chiefs should have received emails regarding this. There must be a representative from each chapter present at this meeting

History (Marty Reph) - The memorabilia show is on August 22nd from 4:30 - 9:30 pm, and August 23rd from 8:00 - 2:00 pm. Come see the cool patches. People under 18 get in for free and adults are $5 to get in. Be there or be square!

Service (Ian Brumm) - CSD had a strong attendance this month and last month. Please keep checking your email because we are planning on having more of these events.

Lodge Staff Advisor Minute: John Bickel

Good morning, my name is John and I serve as the Outdoor Ethics Leader for Cradle of Liberty. Raise your hand if you plan on going to summer camp this year? If your hand is not raised we'd love to have you at Resica Falls as a provisional. You'll have just as much fun as provisional as you would in a normal troop. If you don't plan on attending summer camp you can also join our camp staff! If that interests you, you can go to scoutingphilly/jobs, weather its a summer away in the Poconos at Resica, or a local adventure camp at Musser staffing is greatly appreciated.

Last 2 things, there is an event coming up on June 14th, this is Musser's 95th anniversary. We want a huge crowd at this event. Bring your friends, troop members, and family. Everyone is welcome.

Huge thank you this weekend, there were 26 projects finished and 8-10 started with good progress. The stuff you do immediately impacts camp in a positive way. It has an impact on Garrison, Hart, Spring and Summer camp programs. The projects finished had a lot of stuff so thank you for getting dirty and wet along the way. Ranger and I would like to thank all of you, have a safe trip home.

Lodge Adviser Minute: Todge Sutkowski

So what is a brotherhood? It is a family, we have new members this weekend and you are part of something. This is not an award or honor, we all went through this. Whether youre 18 or 12, we have a common bond shared, we have great friendships, we are fed well when we come to camp. Thats my ask, we had a great and outstanding showing of inductions. 95 new members inducted, thats a lot to be excited for. Please come back, its impacted my life and all the other members. Come back and have fun. You can do that at Spring Service Two with the bright sashes.

Chief Minute: Martin Stacey

I thank all of you that are here with us today, and am honored to stand here before you all. This morning, I see not just a sea of faces, but a group of young people filled with potential, willing to take on challenges, and prepared to lead the way. We are all arrowmen, and from First Vice Chief to Ordeal Member, you have all made your mark as a part of a tradition that has stood for 109 years, exemplifying the true ideals of scouting, advanced leadership, and the power of service. And today, I want to remind you all of the immense power you hold within yourselves. Look around. These are your fellow Arrowmen. They are your brothers. They are your family, and the connections made in this order are unmatched. We in Unami share a bond that transcends far beyond the usual Scout experience. That is something truly special.

When we were first inducted into the order, we pledged ourselves to help others, to uphold the honor of Scouting, and to lead by example. The sash; this arrow, doesn't just symbolize an award or a recognition. It symbolizes the promise we've made to love one another, to be there for each other in any time of need, and to do the tasks that no one else wants to do.

Our service should extend beyond our events and ceremonies. It should extend into our everyday lives. The work we do doesn't stop with a service weekend or an annual conclave; it continues every time we step out into the world, wherever we are, with the goal of making it just a little bit better. Each one of you, as a member of the Order of the Arrow, has the ability to make a lasting difference in your community, in your Troop, and in the world.

I call you back to that fateful day of your pre-ordeal ceremony. Remember the words of Kichkinet who spoke upon you, where he said: Be you steadfast as the Polestar: self-reliant, undiscouraged. The polestar represents a shining beacon of light, and in our context turns us into the servant leaders that we are: Lead by example, and others will follow.

This world needs leaders who are strong, compassionate, and unafraid to take on challenges. And that's exactly what you are leaders in the making. So, go out there, give your best, and keep striving for the next summit, knowing that you have everything you need inside of you to reach it. We are all the future of Unami, and continue to push this lodge forward.

At the 2024 National Order of the Arrow Conference, the National Chief at the time, David Gosik, provided his opening address in which he stated "In all that you do, do it with love. When you meet someone new and shake their hand, do it with love. When you see a new arrowmen sitting alone, join them for a meal and do it with love— and when you change someone's life for the better, which I know all of you will, do it with love.

Unami, In all that we do, do it with love. Thank you.
