All of the work completed looks amazing, and I applaud you all for your amazing attitudes during our Cheerful Service! Overall we had about 560 hours dedicated to camp which is great! We are looking forward to seeing you all again at Spring Service 2, invite your friends!

Brotherhood (Alex Rossi) - We had 28 brothers Seal their Bond this weekend, congratulations to all! Anything for the good of the Lodge:

Todge Sutkowski - Our Council's Annual Recognition Dinner will be next Sunday (04/19) where we will recognize our volunteers for all their hard work they do for our council. Our lodge is a sponsor of the dinner, we get one table for youth and one table for adults. We have about 7 more spots open, it is FREE to attend please let us know ASAP if you're interested. There is a small fee for adults to attend to help mitigate these costs.

Leah Callahan - Sign up for SS2!

Gregg Slocum - This weekend we made about $2,500 in sales in the Trading Post, so thank you very much! Please keep in mind that the more that we sell out at the Trading Post the less money you have to spend when paying your dues! If you have suggestions for any lodge properties please reach out to Ben Branz!

Staff Adviser Minute: John Bickel

I am so appreciative of your great work this weekend. The work that you do helps us provide a great experience for the troops that are camping here, the Cub Scouts that are over in Garrison and really does go a long way to make them want to come back and stay in Scouting and hopefully join us in the OA. To all the different projects done around camp whether it was something that feels really simple or feels really big, it all matters and it all makes a difference so thank you very much for the work that each of you did! If you attended the 2025 Conclave in Puerto Rico please see me for your refund! If you have a skill or experience in trades or you have a weekend that you would like to spend giving back to camp, let me know and we're happy to find you a project! Our camps are only as good as the people that support them!

Lodge Adviser Minute: Todge Sutkowski
“The only way to truly be satisfied is for you to believe you do great work.”

This weekend I saw a lot of great work, just a great job. Everyone was on point this weekend and getting the job, getting to where they needed to be, our check-in process was fantastic, and all the hard work through our service projects were amazing. We can’t make this program run without the support of what this lodge does. Thank you all for that, it was all great work.

There are a lot of great opportunities that our lodge offers such as OA High Adventure where you can go to Philmont, and give a week of service then go on your trek. One thing our lodge does is offer scholarships for people to attend those, so I’d like to congratulate Matthew Rouleau and Sophia Carroll for earning this OATC Scholarship!

My message to the New Members: Everyone in this room who wears this sash did exactly what you did this weekend. It doesn’t matter if it’s a very senior member of the lodge or a 15 year old Scout. Everyone did what you did, you are now part of this family. Take advantage of it. Come back for another weekend, give it a try and experience a weekend being a member of this lodge. I promise you that you get opportunities for leadership, support camp, and make friends outside of your troop.

Once again everyone be safe getting home, and thank you for all you did this weekend!

Chief Minute: Matt Rouleau
You guys have heard a lot about the great work you did this weekend but I’m here to talk about the great work that we’re going to continue to do. For those of you who know, and for those about to find out, the National Order of the Arrow Committee has been developing a new induction process for a little over two years now and it’s finally here! Next weekend our lodge is sending 20 delegates to Camp Allumuchy in New Jersey to learn and fully understand this new induction. Coming in May, from May 8th-10th we are hosting and piloting this new induction for our section. Some of you are going to be invited to SIE to experience it. It's supposedly really good we’ve heard great things about it, and we’re excited to present it to you. With that said we need all of you guys to remain just as committed as you are now to this organization. We can only continue into the future if you guys keep bringing the same energy that you brought this weekend and have been bringing for years. Let’s keep up the intensity as we go through the year, keep up the energy, bring your friends to weekends. It's more fun when there’s more people here to have fun with!
