Business

Musser Scout Reservation and Resica Falls Scout Reservation Patch (Ben Branz) - This patch is a back patch that has MSR and RFSR, it says “Serving Cheerfully Since 1915” with Unami Lodge, One as well as the turtle.

Please see the attachment for exact numbers and pricing details.

Comments on Musser Scout Reservation and Resica Falls Scout Reservation Patch - This patch will be embroidered, and simplified once we submit the design so it’ll be clearer and more easily embroidered. Also, this is only one patch that highlights both of the council camps that we serve.

Motion: Ben Branz - I would like to make a motion to approve the design of the 2026 Unami Lodge Back Patch Seconded by: Amelia LeVay PASSED

Unami Lodge Carharrts (Ben Branz) - We will be ordering Unami Lodge Carhartt Rain Defenders jackets using the Unami Lodge Logo on the left. On the right there will be Your Name and Your Position. These will be available for Preorder at a starting cost of $65. There is a minimum requirement of ordering 6 jackets which starts at $139 with all the embroidering included. This price is subject to change (decrease) depending on the amount of jackets bought.

Please see the attachment for the exact design.

Comments on Unami Lodge Carhartts - $65 seems like a lot but these jackets are very heavy duty and lasting so it's definitely worth the cost. Additionally, the font seen in the attachment is just a placeholder and will not be the font used on the final product.

Motion: Ben Branz - I would like to make a motion to approve the design of the Unami Lodge Carhartt Hoodies Seconded by: Ian Brumm PASSED

Unami Lodge Order of the Arrow Neckerchiefs (Ben Branz) - Please see the attachment for the exact design.

Comments on Unami Lodge Neckerchief - The number '1' is included rather than "Unami Lodge, One" because this is a property that has parts of many different previous designs and that's just an aspect that carried over into this one, the same is true with the usage of "Unami Lodge" (instead of "Unami Lodge, One"). As of now there is no determined cost for these Neckerchiefs as they are included in the Cradle of Liberty Neckerchief set which is to be sold at COL's Liberty Jam event in May.

Motion: Ben Branz - I would like to make a motion to approve these Unami Lodge Neckerchiefs Seconded by: Zach Gilinger PASSED

Section E17 Conclave Rebate - REVISTED (Matt Rouleau) - Please see the attachment for exact numbers, pricing and reimbursement details.

Motion: Ian Brumm - I would like to make a motion to distribute the Conclave Rebate at $100 per person with the lodge getting $1550.64 Seconded by: Ben Branz PASSED

Washington Chapter Patch Proposal (David Zangwill) - Please see the attachment for the exact design as well as exact numbers and pricing details.

Motion: David Zangwill - I would like to make a motion to approve the use of the Unami Turtle on the Washington Chapter Patch Seconded by: Sarah Olijnyk-Wong PASSED

Motion: David Zangwill - I would like to make a motion to buy 200 of the patches with this design, reserve 30 for the chapter, and have the remaining sold for $5 each in the lodge trading post Seconded by: Ian Brumm PASSED

Spring Service One Budget Proposal (Leah Callahan) - See attachment for exact numbers and balances

Motion: Leah Callahan - I would like to make a motion to approve the 2026 Spring Service One Budget Seconded by: Nathan Schooler PASSED 2026 Events Patches (Leah Callahan) - Please see the attachment for the exact design of the patches.

Comments on 2026 Events Patches - "Oscars" will be changed to "Awards" on the Lodge Dinner Patch

Motion: Leah Callahan - I would like to make a motion to approve the 2026 Event Patches with the change of "Oscars" to "Awards" Seconded by: Amelia LeVay PASSED

Anything for the good of the Lodge:

David Zangwill - The Washington Chapter has their March event coming up on March 11th. Washington Chapter will be going ax throwing at the Horsham "Bury the Hatchet", this will be about $35 per person. This event is open to anyone from any chapter! Email washington@unamilodge.org ASAP if you are interested!

Ian Brumm - The Cradle Liberty Council will be holding their Liberty Jam event on May 1st through the 3rd at Green Lane Park. This is a once in a lifetime Jamboree where we will be celebrating 250 years of American independence. We as the lodge have been asked to run a Service Corps of around 40 to 50 people for the Liberty Gym running service, facilitating sessions, and helping to set up camp, etc. Please reach out to me if you can make it and are interested.

Martin Stacey - The section leadership team and I would like to apologize for the cancellation of our SLC event this past weekend due to the inclement weather. We are looking to reschedule it as fast as possible and are looking into scheduling it for a day in March or April so please be on the lookout.

Leah Callahan - The program for Spring Service One has been fully planned so get excited! look out on social media for some incentives and sign up soon registration is now open!

Zach Gilinger - Musser Scout Reservation work day is coming up on March 14th! It is free to attend with lunch provided. While there we're going to be doing a couple service projects with normal service hours of a lodge weekend. A few weeks after that we are going to be having the community service day at Mount Moriah Cemetery so please sign up for that as well!

Sophia Carroll - Please be sure to be filling out our LEC Sign In Sheet especially if you're a youth voting member! Every youth voting member should have a report submitted monthly, this goes for chapter chiefs as well. Your report is how some people stay involved and in the loop if they cannot attend LEC meetings so please try to get those in!

Marina Darcus - We are a little bit lower in our unit election rates then we were last year so please make sure that you're scheduling your unit elections and getting them completed and putting them in a lodgemaster!

Lodge Staff Advisor Minute: John Bickel - Shoutout to Matt, Amelia, and Ben for attending our council executive board meeting tomorrow night and thank you for doing that. Camp Staff Applications are available for both Resica Falls and Musser so check them out at scoutingphilly.org/jobs. If you're interested in the resident experience apply to Resica Falls, if you need a camp that gives you the day experience where you can still sleep at home look at Musser. Both are two amazing Camp Staff opportunities where you can learn and grow. Please also try and take advantage of the service opportunities we have coming up because they help us get back to Scouting and the council. Thank you for all the things you are doing for scouting.

Lodge Adviser Minute: Todge Sutkowski-
Last Sunday night in Milan, Italy, the United States Men's Hockey team won Olympic gold for the first time in 46 years. It wasn't a miracle — it was perseverance.
Going into that gold medal game, Team USA was the underdog. Canada had not lost an Olympic game involving NHL players since 2010. In fact, every single time the two countries had met in a tournament-deciding game since 1996 — the Americans had lost. Every. Single. Time.
And on Sunday, Canada came out swinging. They outshot Team USA 42 to 27. In the second period alone, Canada fired 19 shots to America's 8. By every measure on paper, Canada was the better team that night.
But paper doesn't win gold medals. Heart does.
Standing between Canada and victory was goaltender Connor Hellebuyck, who turned away 41 shots — many of the highlight-reel variety. At one point Canada's Devon Toews stood alone in the slot with an open net, stick on the puck. Hellebuyck dove backward and somehow deflected it away with his stick. When asked about that save afterward, Hellebuyck said simply: "I got this." That kind of quiet confidence is not born in easy moments. It is forged in hard ones.

Then, late in the game, forward Jack Hughes took a stick directly to the mouth. He was bleeding. He lost teeth. Any reasonable person would have stepped off that ice. But Jack Hughes stayed in. And minutes later, in overtime, he scored the winning goal. He smiled through a battered, gap-toothed grin and said: "That's exactly how we wanted it to go."

That smile, Brothers, is the face of perseverance.

This gold medal wasn't won Sunday night — it was built over decades of heartbreaking losses, hard work, and a refusal to quit. They lost in 2002, 2010, and 2014. Each time, they came back stronger.

Your trail will not always be smooth. There will be moments when you are outshot — when the odds, the scoreboard, even your own doubts seem stacked against you. The Scout Law doesn't promise us an easy trail. It equips us to walk a hard one.

So I leave you with this: Think of one place in your life where you've been tempted to step off the ice — and choose to stay in.

The gold belongs to those who refuse to quit.

Chief Minute: Matt Rouleau-

Although our schedules can get busy and life can pull us in different directions, I want to remind you all that we are still arrowmen and that brotherhood does not end when a meeting does. Staying connected with your fellow arrowmen is what keeps our lodge strong. It is more than sitting beside each other at events; it is checking in, offering support, sharing ideas, and building friendships that last. The strength of our lodge is not measured only by numbers or accomplishments, but by how well we stand together.

There will be times when we disagree or drift apart, but connection requires intention. Reach out. Encourage one another. Welcome newer members into conversations and leadership. A connected lodge is a healthy lodge, and a healthy lodge is a striving lodge. Thank you.
