Reports

Inductions (Star McMackin)
If you were one of the Elangomats that served this weekend please stand to be recognized. Honestly, I couldn't have finished this weekend without you guys. If anyone is interested in Elangomating for future weekends please reach out to the Inductions Committee. We can't run these weekends without you all so please volunteer.

THRIVE (T.K.)
At NOAC we received our certificate for completing the THRIVE program. For some of us it was the worst few months, for others it was the best. THRIVE helped us implement some needed changes and try new ideas, but overall they just taught us mostly things we already knew.

Ceremonies/AIA (Noah Goldberg/Leah Callahan)

This weekend we had 5 ceremonies. Shout out to Martin Stacey, because for the first time in like 5 years I missed a ceremony, and he was the lead for ceremonies and he totally rocked it. Shout out to the grounds crew for all of your amazing work.

For AIA we drummed for a total of 5 ceremonies. Thank you to everyone who helped out. If anyone is interested in joining the drum team or the AIA Committee please come and talk to me.

One last major shout out to Cullen for doing his first ceremony and doing an amazing job!

Events (Skye Kramer)
So this weekend we had a total of 122 registered and 113 people checked in, which is pretty good since we only opened it to general members this year. Tie dye was absolutely amazing. Congrats to Triune Chapter on winning the scavenger hunt! Thank you to everyone who helped out with the program this weekend. We have another Lodge weekend coming up this fall, I highly encourage everyone to come up to Resica Falls for Fall Fellowship. Also the Brotherhood Blitz and Lodge Banquet. There will be an email coming out this week with a post-weekend survey which helps us improve our weekends, so please fill out the survey. One last thank you to the cook crew for the amazing food this weekend.

Brotherhood (Luke Smallberger)
5 people sealed their bonds of brotherhood this weekend. If you did so please stand to be recognized. Thank you guys for the service you all did for camp. For those that did your Ordeal this weekend you can seal your bonds of Brotherhood at Spring Service 1! I challenge you all to come out to another weekend and learn more about the OA.

Ordeal (Andrew Smallberger)
This weekend we inducted 44 new brothers! If you did your Ordeal this weekend please stand to be recognized. Thank you all for the amazing work, everything looks amazing! We always say this, but I have a challenge for you all to come back to another weekend. Being a general member is usually better than your Ordeal. I hope you all had fun, and I hope to see you again at another Lodge weekend!

Lodge Operations (Sophia Carroll)
Lodge awards and nominations are now open. If you know an arrowmen who has shown amazing work and devotion to the OA please nominate them.

LLD (Matt Rouleau)
Hello everyone, we will be hosting the lodge leadership development training day otherwise known as LLD on December 14th. This is an event for everyone no matter how good of a leader you are. LLD is designed for people to learn a wide variety of different leadership skills whether it being from lodge specific or generic leadership skills. In addition, our council hosts NYLT which is an amazing week long, or multiple weekend program where youth are taught how to be an effective servant leader in their everyday lives.

NCOC (T.K.)
In 2028 national does not have a program of emphasis for the OA. For the first time ever national is leaving it up to the lodges to select a program of emphasis. I would like to hear everyone's input. There are 4 options that we were given. The first option is a national event, like a national high adventure or conclave (conclave is more focused on having fun instead of training like NOAC is). The second option is a national service project in support of either the BSA High Adventures like Philmont, Sea Base etc… or a local service project across the nation. Option three is an open national leadership event, like an NCOC or Moot (a jamboree for specifically younger people, so leaving out people ages 40 and above). Along with the NCOC, National is willing to open one of the Section Leadership Seminars to the general public. The fourth option is to have no in person event, and just have national/regional webinars and or online events. Or we would not have any program of emphasis that year and have a year to focus on the operations of the lodge. Many people liked the idea of having a year with no program of emphasis, and rather host a lodge conclave where all we do is have fun events.

Anything for the good of the Lodge:

Aidan Sutkowski - Hello everyone, so coming up is the scouting memorabilia show, Friday August 3rd and August 4th. If you have never been to the memorabilia show is a trading show for patches and scouting memorabilia. It is also a chance to learn about scouting heritage taught by Rhys Wallace. For youth (under 18) it's free and for adults it's $5.

David Zangwill - If you are a new member of Unami Lodge and would like to go axe throwing with your friends within the Lodge, please fill out the google form which you can find by scanning one of the many QR codes hanging on the walls around the dining hall. This event is not final as we would like to see how much interest there is as it will be pretty expensive.

Skye Kramer - We have a couple of upcoming lodge events! The first of which being Fall Fellowship at Resica Falls Scout Reservation. Secondly we have the Lodge Banquet at the Allow in KOP. We also have the Brotherhood Blitz coming up. All of these are amazing opportunities so tell your friends and sign up today!

Lodge Staff Advisor Minute: John Bickel
(not present at weekend)

Lodge Adviser Minute: Craig Cless
Normally we have a staff advisor minute, but he was not able to make it this weekend. Anyone that was on camp staff this summer please stand to be recognized. You all did an amazing job this summer; camp could not have run without you all. For those who don't know we have a mixture of Resica Falls staff and Stem Adventure Day Camp staff present right now. The theme for next year at Resica Falls Scout Reservation will be (drum roll) Pirates of the bush kill search for scouting's treasures! They will be looking for staff next year so if your interested look it up, camp staff is a once in a lifetime opportunity.

Noww, you all came here to test yourself, and now you can become a better scout and learn what the OA is. How many of you are excited to be here? As Smallerberger said, come out to another event. Fall Fellowship is in October, come out, if you can't that is ok, just make sure that you come out to at least one future event. I want to thank everyone that came, ranger was impressed and he's rarely impressed. If you want to help run the lodge and these weekends talk to one of our Committee Chairs or myself. Remember that this organization is youth led.

Chief Minute: Terence "T.K." Linday
As we are all here, thank you all for signing up and coming out this weekend. With most to all of the weekends staff also being on camp staff I know the logistics were rough, but thank you for understanding. Thank you all for your work this weekend, you all made that happen and made it possible. My most important thank you goes out to all the adults for taking time out of their work to become an advisor, an Elangomat or cook. We wouldn't have eaten without them. Special thanks to Steve Mach for making sure that the food was above par. I can say this is the first weekend I have eaten every meal and haven't needed to buy WaWa. If you have learned one thing this weekend, please let it be that this organization is for you to improve yourself.
