Reports

Events (Mara Strauss)

We had an amazing Summer Inductions Weekend last week! Sign up for Fall Fellowship, yah.

Membership (Martin Stacey)

So, as of 10 minutes ago we have a total of 876 Lodge members; 374 Ordeal members, 375 brotherhood members and 127 Vigil members. I don't know what it looked like last year, but I do know it was more than this. We NEED to have a large outcome at Fall Fellowship if we want to meet a good induction rate. For the PMP if we get 67 people to pay their dues and come out to an event we will become a High Performing (HP) Lodge which is the highest level a lodge can get. Becoming a thriving lodge is going to be pretty easy, but we need that last push to reach HP.

Lodge Operations (Sophia Carroll)

Award nominations are open! If you have seen a brother who has shown outstanding service to scouting, the OA or a Scout camp please nominate them for the award that is most appropriate for their service! You can nominate them at https://unamilodge.org/awards/; make sure to write your nominations ASAP as they close Oct. 31st.

Business

Fall Fellowship Budget (Mara Strauss)

This budget is pretty easy. This is the budget for Fall Fellowship at Resica Falls from Oct. 4th-6th y'all should sign up! It's going to be country music themed. In the morning we will be providing service to the camp and in the afternoon there will be lots of fun program. As we all know money is tight with the weekend and we know we need to fundraise. For this budget we used the numbers from 2 years ago as FF changes between Musser and Resica every year. Getting to the numbers now we expect there to be 120 general members, 45 turtle pass, 60 Ordeal and 20 Brotherhood for a total of 245 attendees. For the expenses we have 300 event patches for $1.82 each, the weekend bracelets for $0.16 each. We expect to spend $209.50 on program. I got the numbers for food from the one and only Steve Mach and he said we'll only need $7,022.50 by using leftover food from summer camp and the SIW. As for the Ordeals it's the usual prices for everything that leaves for a total of $3,132.50, and for Brotherhood it's just the sash so it's only $500. Now all of this adds up for a total expenses of $10,449.70 and an income of $10,449.70 which all zeros out. There is nothing from the sponsor a sash as that will take play when we present the budget actuals.

Motion: Mara Strauss - I would like to make a motion to approve the 2024 Fall Fellowship Budget. Seconded by: Martin Stacey PASSED

Brotherhood Blitz Budget (Griffen O'Brien)

So we have this budget, we used the numbers from last year to estimate the costs. Going through the numbers we expect there to be 16 staff paying $12 each and 40 participants paying $35 each. For expenses we have the weekend bracelets at $0.20 each for 56 people, and lunch at $10 for the 56 estimated attendees. Each sash is $25. All of this leaves us with a total expenses of $1,592.00 and an income of $1,592.00 which all zeros out! We budgeted for 40 because even if we get more than 40 attendees we won't go over budget by that much.

Motion: Griffen O'Brien - I would like to make a motion to approve the 2024 Brotherhood Blitz Budget. Seconded by: Paul Siminuk PASSED

Spring Service 1 and 2/Summer Inductions Budget Actuals (Mara Strauss)

Summer Inductions was lots of fun, thank you to everyone who helped out and attended! So we had a total of 114 sign up. We only spent $44.99 on program! As for food we did really well with only spending $2,292.14. Ordeal prices came out to $1,593.00 and Brotherhood came out to $125.00. So this is when the sponsor a sash program comes into play. We take in the total amount of money we got from donations this weekend and we divide it by the number of ordeals. So for the totals we spent a total of $4,619.37 and had a total income of $5,246.00 so we had a gain of $626.63.

For Spring Service one we had a total of 387 people sign up. We spent $70 on event patches and bracelets and $117.90 on program. For food we spent $9,731.54, $3,274.00 for Ordeals and $925.00 for Brotherhood. This leaves us for a total expense of $14,726.36 and total income of $11,975.50 which leaves us with a loss of $2,730.02. We did the same thing we did for SIW with the sponsor a sash money.

Moving onto Spring Service two we had a total of 268 people sign up. As for expenses we spent $227.93 on program. For food we spent $6,443.31. As for Ordeals we spent $1,906.50 and $375.00 for Brotherhood. This leaves us with a total income of $8,291.70 and total expenses of $9,541.62 which leaves us with a net loss of $703.20.

This doesn't need to be approved so we can move on.

Anything for the good of the Lodge:
Aidan Sutkowski - General reminder about the memorabilia show. There will be two showing both at the Emmanuel Lutheran Church in Pottstown. The first showing will be this Friday from 4:30 to 9:30 and the second show will be this Saturday from 8 until 2. The lodge flap for the show from last year was made into a patch for this year which you can only get at the memorabilia show.

Zach Gilinger - So Lafayette Chapter is hosting the fall camporee at Delmont Nelson Training Center. The Theme is Delmont's last dance. Morning merit badges and evening games. If your troop is interested in coming just contact us. There will be a back patch. If your not going and want a patch we are selling them for $15 each.

Star McMackin - If you want to serve as an EMAT for Fall Fellowship (FF) please reach out to the Inductions committee. please, please, please im begging!

Ian Brumm - friendly reminder about our Service Day on September 21, 2024 at Mount Moriah Cemetery. There will be more info out shortly.

Fred lynch - Please keep Ed Lester in your thoughts. He has come down with cancer and it's a bad case.

Mrs. McConville - Does everyone have one of these really cool turtles? Buy them from me for $10 to support the funding efforts for next year's Conclave in Puerto Rico.

Rhys Wallace - So I have a new publication. It's a more academic paper about how scouts used our area to benefit our growth. Please buy to help me pay for the printing. They are $5, So ya you should buy one or buy ten!

Lodge Staff Advisor Minute: John Bickel

Sorry I'm not here in person. Craig could not have said my words better for me at the SIW. Shout to a number of our LEC members on camp staff. Whether you were camp staff or volunteers it all helped a lot. We have continually grown in number and it always helps for more people to staff and help out at camp. There are a lot of Lodge events coming up for us to enjoy providing service to camp and partake in fellowship with one another. Bring your friends out to help as well! Again thank you all for your work and i'm excited for the fall ahead.

Lodge Adviser Minute: Craig Cless

Thanks for coming over tonight, please get more food! I don't want to hold everyone up from having fun, but as we are heading back to school be safe driving up and just have a good semester. Have fun getting back into things and before you know it'll all be over and it'll be summer again. It's definitely a good time of the year and things are speeding up!

Chief Minute: Terence “T.K.” Linday

Welcome back everyone! August is my favorite LEC personally. I am happy to be back because there is definitely a difference between being the Sports Director and Lodge Chief. I had a great summer and I couldn't stop thinking about ways to improve the Lodge. It's not about the stuff we do or plan, it's all about the emotions and memories we make. The friends you make and people you meet. Don't let others or anything deter you from doing what you want. I am happy to finally be back. Let's go and make some more memories.

Closing and Song
