2024 FF Budget Actuals (Avery Tyrrell)

Just going through the numbers we had a total of 270 people sign up which brought us a total income of $11,649.70. As for expenses, weekend patches were $546 and bracelets $43.20, $5,299.98 for food (YAY!), entire Ordeal costs totaled $1,744.50. This brings us to a total expense of $8,299.68. All of this brings us to an income of $3,350.02.

We did lose money on SS1 and SS2. We made $3k from extra food because we had lots of extra food from summer camp and the costs of the sashes and booklets were inaccurate.

2024 History Budget Actuals (Aidan Sutkowski)

First off in the budget in the storage unit which cost $0 because we haven't gotten around to purchasing it yet. Same thing with the Musser historic trails patch. We spent $553 Miscellaneous, $0 on work day food, $268.17 on Podcastle.ai, $1,000 on matching the donation for Tom the Toad. As for income we made $1, 358 Lodge Weekend yard sales, $682 Lodge Dinner yard sales, $727 on miscellaneous yard sales, $135 on publications, $673.45 on the show, $537 on private sales, $75 in donations and finally $0 on the African American Scouting History Book bringing us to a total 2024 balance $14,1451.57. This final Balance does not include any money slocum got from sales for us. We have big plans to help the lodge and camp in 2025!

2024 lodge officer recap (TK)

Alright, because we can’t present this like per usual during LLD we’re going to do it now. We held a total of 4 Ordeal events, 5 Brotherhood events and 1 Vigil event. As of right now we have a total of 991 registered members in the lodge, 247 new Ordeal members, 149 new Brotherhood members and 10 new Vigil members. We had 108 members attend Conclave and 58 people head to CU Boulder Colorado for NOAC. Within Chapter membership 4 chapters grew in membership with a 95% membership compared to last year. In the beginning of the lodge year the officers were tasked with creating possibility statements based around the function of the lodge and what we can improve upon. After hearing what these statements include, are we (the LEC) satisfied with what we did throughout the year? I know the officers believe we blew these goals out of the park. This was an awkward transition year in that we changed a lot for the positive impact of the lodge.

Business

2025 Conclave Budget (Skye Kramer)

This is a more expensive Conclave than other years due to the fact it is in Puerto Rico - just so you all can keep that in mind. Going through all of the numbers we are budgeting for a total of 40 members to attend as $1,200 each person. As for fundraising we have the patch set being sold at $20 a set, the patch auction which is TBD, 110 long sleeve shirts for $30 each and the turtle keychains sold for $10 each. This brings us to a total income of $60,550. As for the expenses the Section is charging $1,200 per person. A total of fundraising everything will cost a total of $4,259.80. We have a shipping cost of $250 here just in case we need to send anything to or from Puerto Rico. The lodge is also putting on a 10% contingency fund to cover unexpected expenses like incase of an emergency. This brings to a total income of $919.22.

The Section is also tacking on a 10% contingency fund to cover unexpected costs. If that 10% is not fully spent the money will be given back to YOU (not the lodge). We have to give the Section a quote on how many members we expect to attend and we'll need to pay a $250 downpayment on that number we give to the Section so we better fulfill those 40 places or we'll lose lots of money.

Motion: Skye Kramer - I would like to make a motion to approve the 2025 Conclave proposed budget. Seconded by: Amelia LeVay PASSED

2025 Conclave Fundraising Patch (Skye Kramer)
This is what we came up with for the flap and CSP patch design. It'll be 100% embroidered and we might get the patches by the lodge dinner if we rush order them.

Motion: Skye Kramer - I would like to make a motion to approve the 2025 Conclave flap and CSP fundraiser patch set. Seconded by: Andrew SmallbergerPASSED

2025 Conclave Long Sleeve (Skye Kramer)
This is the fundraiser long sleeve t-shirt design. The front design has the half turtle and the back design is the square design. Maybe move the turtle down a little bit so it doesn't cut into the wording on the front design.

Motion: Skye Kramer - I would like to make a motion to approve the 2025 Conclave fundraiser long sleeve shirt design. Seconded by: Zach Galinger PASSED

2025 Events Prices (Skye kramer)
So we decided to not change the 2025 event prices and turtle pass price due to the fact we've made a net profit of $543 on the weekends. We can keep the weekend prices the same and use the extra money to create a better program during the weekends. Compared to other lodges our lodge has better program and food - that's what we are paying for with the higher event prices.

Motion: Skye Kramer - I would like to make a motion to keep the 2025 event and turtle pass prices the same as 2024. Seconded by: Andrew Smallberger PASSED

Anything for the good of the Lodge:

Amelia LeVay - Over the past few months we have been working to create a Triune a Chapter flag. Our idea is to bring the Philadelphia background with the ideal Scout and OA Arrow. The Unami logo is missing - send to Nathan S. so he can add it.

Skye Kramer - The lodge dinner is coming up! Registration is open online so please sign up today! If you have any door prizes we would greatly appreciate the donation.

Sophia Carroll - Thank you to everyone who submitted the amazing award nominations! We had a good awards meeting. The long nominations were our favorite!!

TK - This is the first time we have ever had the 2022, 2023 and 2024 Lodge Chiefs in the room! Thank you all for coming - I wouldn't be here without you two.

Mr. Lyons - As you can see my name is a little different - Mikayla is tied up right now. There's a future Arrowmen who's ready to make their debut!

Rhys Wallace - Buy some fundraising Conclave turtles! Also, so basically one of our old Delmonst guys put together all of the old Delmont stuff and made a book with it all! We'll have the book in distribution in 2025.

Mr. Lynch - The 95th anniversary for Camp Hart is June 14th, 2025. Come out and make a good representation for Unami Lodge.

Todge Sutkowski - Chapters send in your 2025 chapter officer election results to Martin and myself. We need to get those in.

Lodge Staff Advisor Minute: John Bickel
Real quick, huge kudos to those who planned and led the Blitz! I heard it was a big success. We killed the Bhood and the numbers were GREAT! Really proud, it really shows how having a common goal can create good outcomes. It's been a great year, TK good job it's been great working with you and your officer team. You have left the lodge in good condition. Let's finish the year strong!

Lodge Adviser Minute: Craig Cless
"In the early 1960s President John F. Kennedy made a bold statement to Congress and the American people. Kennedy promised that the country would put a man on the Moon "not because [it is] easy, but because [it is] hard." At that time, there was little practicality or certainty of how NASA could make it to the moon and back, but the United States had a new and exciting mission. We believed we could complete the impossible because that is what we were set out to do. In July 1969, thousands at the National Scout Jamboree and across the world were able to witness Eagle Scout Neil Armstrong touch down on that cratered surface of the Moon and declare, "The Eagle has landed." The Order of the Arrow also has a lofty mission, "to fulfill its purpose as an integral part of the Boy Scouts of America through positive youth leadership under the guidance of selected capable adults." Many times your mission seems farther away than the stars and improbable at best, but easy or hard this is what we were chosen to do. Through dedication, the advice of experienced adults, and encouragement of one another, we can complete these missions; we can make these landings possible. Just like the exploration of space, our mission of service will never be complete, but through you, our youth leadership, we will have many successes on the way."

For the new LEC member: “As a man was passing by some elephants, he suddenly stopped, confused by the fact that these huge creatures were being held by only a small rope tied to their front leg. No chains, no cages. It was obvious that the elephants could break away at any time from their bonds. For some reason, they did not. He saw a trainer nearby and asked why these animals just stood there and made no attempt to get away. "Well," trainer said, "when the elephants are very young and much smaller we use the same size rope to tie them.
At that age, it's enough to hold them. As they grow up, they are conditioned to believe they cannot break away. They believe the rope can still hold them, so they never try to break free."
The man was amazed. These animals could at any time break free from their bonds but because they believed they couldn't, they were stuck right where they were.
Like the elephants, how many of us go through life hanging onto a belief that we cannot do something, simply because we failed at it once before? Failure is part of learning; we should never give up the struggle in life.”

I'm telling you all this because even if you failed it doesn't mean you can't try again. Have a good Thanksgiving and enjoy your family. Don’t forget to finish the year strong.

Chief Minute: Terence “T.K.” Linday
Brothers,

As I stand here at the end of this lodge year, I can’t help but reflect on the incredible journey we’ve shared.

Being your Lodge Chief has been one of the most challenging, rewarding, and exciting experiences of my life.

This year was filled with its fair share of ups and downs—moments of uncertainty that tested me and moments of triumph that inspired me.

Through it all, one thing has remained constant: every single person in this room.

Youth and adults alike.

You are the heart of this Lodge, a source of strength and support, and, most importantly, my brothers.

Each of you, through your dedication and passion, has helped me see the OA in a new light. You’ve reminded me that this isn’t just an organization—it’s a brotherhood.

Thank you for your guidance, your trust, and your commitment to making this year extra-ordinary. I am deeply grateful for everything we’ve accomplished together, and I leave this role inspired and looking forward to seeing what you will achieve next

Yours in Brotherhood.
“The People’s Chief”
