New Members Bash Report (David Zangwill)

The New Members Bash was outstanding! We had 20+ climbers and a lot of others who came and socialized. We bouldered and we climbed and we got some awesome photos. Thank you to everyone who helped to put on this event.

Business

National Jamboree Flap Discussion (Martin Stacey)

We have this hand drawn design for the flap design we want to go after. Since Jamboree's theme is “Elevate” we want this patch to have topography lines as elevation markers. However, we need to create a bottom piece for this flap so it can trade well at Jamboree. The flap idea is based off of the 2018 conclave flap.

We have a thought to make the bottom a topographical map of Summit Bechtel. The entire color scheme is going to be a navy blue scheme. The main background will be light gray and baby blue, with the lines on the topographical map being navy blue. Something that we can add is the fire circle that is at Summit Bechtel that we put there. There was a recommendation to make the WWW, 1915, and the Fleur di lis stand out more. Another suggestion was to make the UNAMI LODGE, ONE an hombre color scheme. We will also seek to design a shoulder patch that will match the flap design.

Anything for the good of the Lodge:

Martin Stacey - The Vigil Honor committee is putting together polos. The polos will be fully customizable with names and vigil translations. They will be maroon and the names will be on the side. The vigil logo will be on the chest. We will not be putting Lenape translations on these.

David Zangwill - Dues for next year are open for the early bird in early December. You will have to pay on Lodgemaster and if you don't have access to Lodgemaster then you can still pay on Blackpug. Next year will be the first year where you must pay only through Lodgemaster.

Steve Mach - Camp staff applications are now live. Come spend an amazing summer doing great work up at Resica Falls.

The Vigil Honor committee has completed their third and final vigil event with Bill Rush keeping his vigil this past weekend. Thanks to Martin Staacey for helping with the three inductions.

Martin Stacey - Next month we will be having a casual LEC with our Christmas party. There will be a Google spreadsheet out in a couple weeks so everyone can bring stuff. The LEC will be on DECEMBER 16th.

Michael Gilinger - There are still several positions in the Jamboree troops available for both male and female troops. We have 12-13 female spots left and several male spots. We still have room for 2 more leaders, Steve will be doing interviews within the next couple weeks.

Lodge Staff Advisor Minute: John Bickel

I would like to first say thank you to all of the folks in the room who served on the staff for one or more of the MANY council and district events that took place this past Fall! We had a tremendous season of programs for Scouts of all ages thanks to you and many others who made it happen!

Next - a big thank you to those who attended the Brotherhood Blitz and gave-back in more cheerful service to camp. Your efforts were appreciated throughout the property!

I am also encouraged to see the 2026 Officers and Advisers meeting and already beginning their planning. This is a great way to start the new year, and I look forward to the great things ahead as the build on the success of the 2025 team.

And last - As we begin to settle into the holiday season - I hope everyone takes some time to enjoy Thanksgiving with family and friends. We are thankful for the numerous hours spent on Scouting each week, and hope that you have a very Happy Thanksgiving - I certainly am thankful for each of you and the impact you have across the Scouting organization!

Lodge Adviser Minute: Todge Sutkowski

One of the things I want to talk about is that everyone goes to their family for a happy Thanksgiving. That is a period of self reflection, we are thankful for the food and the family we have. But on that note, we forget about the giving part. The staff at Resica are giving, hopefully you are all doing scouting for food. Try to think about those in your neighborhood, elderly who can't shovel the snow or rake the leaves. It's time to give back and do a good turn daily. Have a great Thanksgiving everyone.

Chief Minute: Martin Stacey

One more LEC left. I wanted to share a quote with you all. “Learning is finding out what you already know. Doing is demonstrating that you know it. Teaching is reminding others that they know just as well as you. You are all learners, doers, teachers.” All members of the LEC are integrated into the lodge. Our job as arrowmen is to spread that to other members, thats what we look for here. Happy holidays and have a good Thanksgiving.
